

Press Release: David Wright Joins Closing the Gap Healthcare Group's Advisory Board

Mississauga, Ontario – November, 2012

Closing the Gap Healthcare Group (CTGHG) is pleased to announce the addition of our new Advisory Board member, David Wright.

David is the President and Owner of Agora Consulting Partners.

“David has rich experience and expertise in Healthcare and technology that will supplement our Advisory Board well,” says Israel Mendez, CAO. “Closing the Gap Healthcare Group benefits greatly from the discussion, ideas and assistance provided by our advisors. We are excited to have David join our Board of highly esteemed and recognized leaders.”

Wright brings with him to CTGHG almost 30 years of leadership experience. His previous positions have included being the owner of Illumina Partners, a private equity firm investing in turnaround opportunities, and the president of Sage Information Consultants, a Toronto-based technology consulting firm. Wright's experience also includes his role as the Advisory Council Chairperson at the Morrissette Institute for Entrepreneurship at the Ivey School of Business, Board Member and Coach for the Northern Toronto Basketball Association, and Secretary Treasurer for the Lawrence Park Athletic Association. His education includes an Honours Business Administration degree from the University of Western Ontario and he is a Chartered Accountant, earning the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario Bronze Medal placing and twelfth in Canada on the Uniform Final Exam.

Closing the Gap's Advisory Board assists with strategic planning, shares expertise to help enhance our growth, offers an external perspective to CTGHG and advocates to the health care system per the advantages of working with high quality health care organizations like us.
